Congratulations to Dr. Pete Schuhmann, Professor of Economics, for being selected by students to deliver the keynote speech at Convocation on August 17, 2009. Dr. Schuhmann was recognized for his excellence in the classroom and has won numerous awards in his teaching career. He won the Chancellors Teaching Excellence Award in 2005, was an Impact Instructor in 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, and 2005, and is an Honorary Member of Phi Eta Sigma National Honor Society, a student-nominated university teaching award for instruction at the freshman level.